THE DON CLOTHING CO.

Broadway, cor. Grand St.

NOTICE.

The fine ready-made Stock of Winter Clothing will be sold at retail, commencing tomorrow morning, Thursday, Sept. 4.

By order of the Assignee.

Persons desiring to select heavy Winter Overcoats can have them laid aside until Sept. 28 if they so desire.

HABLEM'S UNWELCOME VISITOR. ed of Health was the recipient of splaints from the upper end of fanhattan Island that droves of these little pests were gathering in beds, carpets, clothing and other lairs, and were becoming a universal poetrience. Now a wail is again wafted down from classic Harlem, and the Board of Health is pitcously urged to do something for the relief of the denigens of the territory lying along the Central Park on either side, and up on Washington Heights and along the Harlem River, and through the entire length and breadth of Harlem's precincts.

Police Capt. Albert O. Smith, of the One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street station, says that up on the Heights the good house wives are in a perfect panic over the reappearance of the pestiferous little hoppers.
Complaints come from the entire territory between West One Hundred and Forty-fifth and One Hundred and Twenty-fifth streets, and it is evident that the varmints are of the genuine Newark variety and are on their customary eastward jaunt.

The solicemen quartered at the One Hundred and Twenty-fifth station have been so troubled by fleas in the station-house that the reserves tuned out of their cots Monday night and had a "general hunt" for them with insect powder and other attendant destroyers.

The cars on the elevated roads are infected, and his fleaship is not at all fastidious. He will teste the sweets of blue blood of the daughter of wealth and refinement, or be squally content to dine off the vital fluid of the brawny and sootly laborer.

He is absolutely no respector of persons.

DREAM PACES.

This will usually subdue the rascais to a state of innocuous desuetude; but should they still show signs of fight, the only thing left is to funigate the scene of carriage. This is done by closing the windows and other outlets for the atmosphere, and then all pans with sulphur, which is set on fight. This makes an atmosphere very like the ideal interno in color and odor, but it is sure death to Mr. Flea and his family,

Flea bane and plenty of hot ands is the only true remety, according to old-fashioned housewives, but Tusser estols the virtue of wormwood as a fee exterminator in these lines;

Walle wormwood hath seed get a handful or need Vice-Consul, T. Kioto, to act as interness Vice-Consul, T. Kioto, to act as interness.
